Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time Sunday 8th February 2026

Dear Parishioners,

I remember a conversation with my former bishop in which a few of us were discussing how some newly ordained priests in the diocese of Covington were fitting into priestly ministry. There was one who seemed to be having a few difficulties. My bishop eventually made a rather pithy, but wise observation: when we choose one thing, we automatically exclude other options.

While we were discussing the expectations of priestly life, this statement is true in every situation. St Paul reminds the Corinthians in today's second reading that he has chosen the wisdom of Christ, and therefore he has refused to accept the wisdom of the world. Although Catholic theology is known for always accepting a 'both ... and ...' approach, when we live the Gospel we have to reject sin, former ways of living, and certain ways of thinking. Christ instructs his disciples, and us in turn, to turn away from sin and follow the Gospel - we cannot remain in sin and be His followers. Moreover, Christ tells us that he wants us to have real conviction, and not to be lukewarm in accepting His teachings.

St Paul's words to the Corinthians cause us to ask: what ways do I still hold on to the wisdom of the world or my former life that keep me from living fully in the Gospel?

With many prayers for the week ahead,

Fr Ian

DEATH ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH NEWSLETTER

Many parishioners have asked about including loved ones in the weekly death anniversary notices. These notices began in 2018 and originally included only those whose funerals took place at St Ann's. Names from earlier years can also be included.

To make this clearer and more inclusive, a list will be placed in the church porch for a few months.

Parishioners are invited to add the name and date of death of their deceased loved ones. Once compiled, these names will be included in the newsletter in the appropriate month.

Please note: only names added to the list will be included, do not email the office.

The deceased does not need to have had their funeral at St Ann's, but should have a clear connection to the parish, such as past parishioners or immediate family of current parishioners.

Thank you for your patience as this is introduced.

AT ST JOSEPH'S CHURCH IN MAIDENHEAD

THE BANSTEAD FIVE GROUP OF CHURCHES

Many of you will know of the important covenant the churches of Banstead signed in May 1991, nearly 35 years ago, committing us to working together wherever we can. This has led to a number of significant ongoing benefits to the community of Banstead, not least the Open Door café and the annual pantomime, as well as many joint services and learning opportunities.

However we are finding it increasingly difficult to gather enough volunteers to make the partnership viable. We are continuing with many of the events, including the Walk of Witness and the Remembrance Sunday services. But the oversight committee is getting smaller, and many churches are no longer able to resource new activities. Those faithful souls who had been involved from the beginning are now wanting to hand over to others, and we are committed to maintaining the original vision of a lay-led partnership. Specifically, we urgently need someone with persistence and basic IT skills to resolve issues around our currently inaccessible bank account.

Are you passionate about churches joining together across traditions? Could you offer time and enthusiasm for this important project? Please speak to Geraldine or Caroline our St Ann's representatives about how you can get involved. You can contact them through emailing banstead@abdiocese.org.uk
